We are called upon this morning to relate one of the maddest homicides that has occurred in our city for many years. The particular, so far as we have been able to ascertain them, are as follows:

Last evening, about eight o'clock, United States Commissioner Charles C. Browne called at the residence of George J. Caldwell, No.
167 Elm-street, and was met at the door by that gentleman, who informed him that he did not desire any conversation with him and

THE COLORED PUBLIC SCHOOLS begin their fall session on Monday morning. They closed one week before the other schools and therefore open one week sarlier. THE WASSIGNER KIDNAPPING CASE.—Stewart and Weaver, the alleged kidnappers of the negro boy James Waggoner, were before Judge Lowe, yesterday morning, and committed in default of bail in the sum of $2,000 for their appearance at the Police Court next Monday.

BUSGLARY IN ELM-STREET.—The residence of Jacob Hoffman, in Elm-street, near the Hamilton road, was feloniously entered night before last and robbed of money and valuables to the amount of $87. The house was quietly ransacked and the burglars departed with their booty without arousing the inmates.

MERTING OF THE WATER-WORKS TRUSTERS.
At their regular hebdomadal meeting day before yesterday, the Trustees of the Water-works passed claims amounting to $4,434 98. The twenty-inch line of pipe to Central-avenue is now complete, and in working order, giving general satisfaction.

ARREST FOR ATTEMPTING TO PASS COUNTERFRIT MONTY.—A man named Lingo was arrested, last evening, and confined in the Hammond-street Station-houseupon a charge of attempting to pass a ten-dollar spurious bill on the Bank of Ashland, Kentneky, on aundry Fifth-street retail dealers. He will have an examination, this marning, before Judge Lowe.

Human Romeny.—A man named John Webster, who resides on Freeman-street, near Gest, was knocked down night before last, at the corner of John and Elizabeth, and robbed of a gold watch valued at $100 and a portemonnaic containing $26, in bank bills. The coundrels struck him with a slung-shot and injured him quite severely, although he was able to reach his home without assistance.

Fire Yesterday Afternoon,—About three o'clock yesterday afternoon, a fire broke out in the pork-house of Taylor & Cuyler on the bank of the Miami Canal, near the Mohawk Bridge. The Fire Department was promptly on the ground, and succeeded in subduing the flames and saving a greater part of the property. The damage will reach $1,000, of which $5,000 is upon the took and the remainder on the building. Both the loses upon the warehouse and its contents are fully covered by insurance.

THE RECENT CASE OF MALICIOUS SHOOTING IN THE FOURTH WARD.—William Engelhoff was examined yesterday morning in the Police Court, on a charge of maliciously shooting at Jesse Beckley, a few nights since. From the evidence, it appeared that the shooting was altogether unlicious and inexcusable, although the parties had indulged in a quarrel a few days previous. The defendant was required to enter into bonds of $1,500, for his appearance, to answer the charge before the next term of the Court of Common Pleas.

THE CAMPRICA MINERALES.—Smith & Nixon's Hall was densely packed again last evening, and the performance passed of quite agreeably. The company has some faults, a few of which we have noticed, but is quite good and deserves to be seen and heard. Eph Horn, like Oliver Wendell Holmes, seems afraid to be as funny as he can, and Lestlie will not sing as well as he might. Nevertheless, the entertainment for one of the kind is very good, and we advise all lovers of burlesques and delineations of negro life, and character, not to fail to see this company before its stay in the city is brought to a close.

DESPERATE APPRAY-MAN WOUNDED IN Front.—Patrick Molloy and Barney Gaffeny became involved in a difficulty, yesterday afternoon, on Front-street, near the Gasworks, when the latter drew a knife and inflicted a severe wound in the left leg of his antagonist, which although it may not micted a severe wound in the test tag of his antagonist, which, although it may not prove fatal, will confine him for a long time to his room and probably render him tame for life. Gaffeny immediately fled to Kentucky and has not yet been arrested. John Molloy, a brother of the wounded man, also received in the field, and received a slight engaged in the fight, and received a sligh wound in the arm, but it is not of a very se rious nature.

Highway Robbert and Attempted Assassination.—A trio of cut-throats assaulted Mr. W. B. Singley, day before yesterday, near the Schofield House, about four miles from the city, on the Madisonville Pike, while he was returning home from market, and robbed him of $14. His resistance was determined, but he was overpowered by the number of his antagonists, one of whom during the sack drew a pistol and shot his nose off, making a wound that will disfigure him for life. The circumstance caused the intensest excitement in the neighborhood, and a number of persons armed themselves and started in pursuit of the thieves, but at latest accounts had not been successful in overtaking them.

Serious Apprax—Man Sevenetz Cut with a Chilist.—A couple of parties named James Ashley and Edward Hutchins, both workmen in Litherbury's ship-yard, became involved in a difficulty, day before yesterday, when the former was very seriously wounded by a chisel, which was thrown at him by the latter. A feud has existed between them for some time and something occurred to revive this old bittarness of feeling, whon Hutchins laid in wait for Ashley, and when he came up struck him, it is alleged, with a club, and afterward threw a chisel at him which took effect in the back, and inflicted a wound which will probably prove final. Hutchins SERIOUS APPRAY-MAN SEVERELY CUT WITH which will probably prove fatal. Hutchin was subsequently arrested, taken before Judge Lowe, yesterday morning, and re-quired to give ball in the sum of $750 for his oppearance for examination next Wednesday

Board of City Improvements.—At the regular semi-weekly session of the Board of City Improvements, yesterday morning, of motion of Mr. Stagge, contracts were awards as follows:

To Jones & Bonte, at 58½ cents per square yard, to paye with bowlders, Clay-street, from Allison to Liberty.

To John Ryan, at $1 35 per lineal foot, to paye with bowlder stone and flaging, Rossalley, from the Miami Canal to Twelfthalley from the Miami Canal to Twelfthstreet.

To Jetson Bainbridge, at forty five cents per square yard, to pave with brick the unpaved sidewalks on Clay-street, from Thirteenth-street to Alludu.

On motion of Mr. Kiersteet, the contract to pave with bowlder-stone Eighth-street, from Broadway to the Miami Canal, was awarded to John Ryan at fifty-eight cents per square yard.

The following repairs of accepted bowldered streets were ordered:

Court-street, from Vine to Race, for $10.
Sixth-street, from Whitewater Canal to West From-street, of a cost of $10 per square.

The crossings at the intersection of Vine and Eighth-street, for $30.

The Equandiciper of the Festers District was authorized to have repaired the intersection of Niagara and Front-streets, at a cost of $10. Adjourned

An account current was filed by the ad-ministrators of Thomas Owens.

The will of Gerritt Schulte, late of Hamil-ton County, was admitted to probate. It is dated October 1, 1859. The testator cuts off a married daughter from any inheritance, and directs that after payment of his debts all his property, real and personal, shall go to his wife, who is named executrix.

The will of Maria Bigelow was admitted to Probate.

turned to pass through the hall and go up stairs.

Mr. Browne followed rapidly and closely, until Mr. C. resolved his bed-room, which he entered, and afterward closed the door. Here some words passed between the parties, C. telling B. to come no farther, and B. saying that he must enter.

Finally, the door was opened by Mr. B., who half-forcibly entered the room, when Mr. Caldwell drew a pistol and fired, the contents taking effect in the right side of Mr. B., between the sixth and seventh ribs, passing, we presume, through the right lung and into the heart.

A scuffle then ennued between the parties, during which Mr. B. was thrown upon the bed. Fearing that the wound was dangerous, Mr. C. rushed out of the house, and, meeting a friend, told him the circumstances and accompanied him to the office of Dr.

W. Whight.—On motion it was ordered that the assignee should file a new account and rouchors.

Dedication of the New Syragogue of Lodge Street, Near Syverh.—The children of Israel have creeted a beautiful temple upon the site whereon, not long ago, stood a shrine dedicated to another worship—that of Venus. The new building is a decided improvement upon the old one, and is a work of art, neat, capacious, chaste and beautiful. The exercises of its dedication yesterday afternoon were conducted with all the ceremonials usual with the orthodox of Israel—we say orthodox, for there are as many schisms, croeds, doctrines and practices among God's chosen people as among Gentiles, and this, the seventh of the Hebrew persuasion in Cincinnati, we take to be orthodox, inasmuch as the Rabbi chosen to preside over the ceremonies was the Rev. Mr. Leiser of Philadelphia, an able, learned and eloquent priest of the old regime.

The exercises were peculiar but interesting. The elders preceded by troops of boys and girls bearing honquets and little banners with Scriptural inscriptions in Hebrew, and a band of music, marched into the chamber. The Rabbi stood before the Tabernacle, the roaders at the deak, and three elders bearing the sacred archives, preceded by two officials chanting prayers, marched seven times around the aisles, between each pilgrimage the band playing a bar or so of sacred music. The Rabbi then addressed the congregation in a plain, sensible and eloquent English exhortation, in which he chiefly inculcated love of God and the neighbors. He said, quoting from Isaiah, that God planted a vineyard, and explained its cultivation, uses and blessings, but found nothing save worthless fruit.

When he came, Israel was the emblem of that vineyard and had received the word of God direct on Sinai. The word given there was the truth as much now as then, the word given there was the truth as much now as then, the word given there was the truth as much now as their, he word given there was the truth as much now as their had pr bed. Fearing that the wound was dangerous, Mr. C. rushed out of the house, and, meeting a friend, told him the circumstances and accompanied him to the office of Dr. Blackman, who immediately visited the wounded man.

Although the physician reached the residence of Mr. Caldwell within fifteen minutes after the wound had been inflicted, he was too late to render Mr. Browne any service, and just in time to see his patient die.

Mr. Caldwell immediately went to the Hammond-atreet Station-house and gave himself into the custody of the officers. No one happened to be in the house at the time of this unfortunate occurrence save the parties interested; Mr. Caldwell's wife and daughter, we believe, having visited a neighbor for the purpose of spending the evening.

Mr. Caldwell is, we believe, book-keeper in the auction-house of Alfred Wood, on Pearl-street, between Main and Walnut, and is highly respected by all who know him. It is said that some previous business relations between him and the deceased caused the visit he received last night, but what they were we can not tell.

The deceased was formerly a resident of Lockport, N. Y.; almost twenty-eight years of age; a young and promising lawyer, and had recently been appointed United States Commissioner. Both the parties in this melaucholy transaction are well-known and highly esteemed, and the affair, both as it regards the living and the dead, will be deeply regretted.

Coroner Carey was called upon to hold an inquest upon the body, but it was postponed, and will probably take place this morning.

It will readily be imagined that some previous circumstances rendered the parties infinical, and these will be probably developed to-day, until which time we draw the curtain upon this extremely sad and melancholy tragedy.

The Way Our Citizens are Protected.—
The bours which printers keep, who are employed on a morning paper, are not such as are desirable in well-regulated families. In fact, their labor runs till one or two o'clock in the morning—a time when, according to the old saving, all housest people ought to be in bed. The demands of the public stomach for late news have, however, excused this regular irregularity in printer's habits, and it has usually been held to be more of a hard-ship than a crime or immorality.

Not so, however, under our present Mayor's police, who, having purified the city from every thing else that is dangerous to society or offensive to morals, have taken to dogging the printers on their way home in the moraling, assuming that the unreasonable hour alone made a prima facie case for the watch-house. to dust.

He was quite elequent upon the condition of the sufferings of Israel in the middle ages, when life was held upon sufferance merely, and science, agriculture, art and progress were closed to the poor Jew. Education, he said, is what Israel wants. Now every field of human habitude is open, and Israelites adorn them all. Be faithful, charitable, carnest, honest and true to the principles you profess. Without practice, principles are words only I repeat to Jews, if such is your profession.

Our extremely limited space does not permit further notice of this eloquent lecture. The entire ceremony passed off in very satisfactory style, and seemed to be highly interesting to all who witnessed it.

ent, H. Cummings was appointed to fill his blace for the evening. Addresses were de-vivered by J. J. Gassen, Esq., of Newport, and Wm. Penn Nixon, of Cincinnati, both of which were well received.

ment of the costs, if they would agree not to prosecute for the assault.

This proposition shows the character of the outrage. If these men had done any thing worthy of arrest, what right had the prosecutor to let them go? If they had been unjustifiably arrested and assaulted, they should have been honorably discharged, and the watchmen reprimanded or dismissed. But what chance had these men in our Police Court, where justice is administered as if the only thing needed to establish the millennium, is that every man, woman and child shall be "sent up" for terr or twenty days; and such watchmen as made this arrest would have no scruples about swearing it through? The prosecutor knew that although an outrage had been committed on these men, he had at least ten days imprisonment in our City Black-hole, and the costs, as capital to compromise with; and as the easiest way to get rid of the affair, the printers concluded to pocket the wrong and pay the costs of it; having lost a night's sleep, which included a day's labor, been brutally abused, besides paying costs, all for the privilege of walking our streets in the night.

The Late Alexeed Case of Receiving OUTRAGE UPON A NEGRESS. OUTRAGE UPON A NEGRESS.—A white man, whose name we were unable to learn, attacked a negro woman, about forty-five years of age, while walking along the railroad, three miles above Paris, fractured her skull and limbs, and otherwise injured her, and then threw her down a steep bank, where she was lying when discovered. The cause of this outrage is unknown.

STABBING APPRAY AT CRAB OBCHARD.—A difficulty occurred at Crab Orchard Springs, a day or two since, between Henry Miller and Harry Walker, in which the former stabbed the latter dangerously with a swordcane. Miller was arrested, and held to bail. He is the same individual who shot a man in Harrisburg, a few months since.

Covington Artillery Company.—This Company met last evening, was marshaled into the State, and organized by the election of the following officers: Robert Richardson, Captain; Nathaniel Pratt, First Lieutenant; John Thompson, Second Lieutenant; Michael Champion, Third Lieutenant.

The Late Alleged Case of Receiving Stoles Goods.—Moses A. Davis, M. Karger and M. Hirschberg, merchants doing business on the corner of Fifth and Main, were arrested a few days ago, charged with receiving stolen goods. The case came up for examination before Judge Lowe, yesterday morning, and the defendants were discharged after a long and patient examination.

The prosecuting witness, Charles Jacobs, testified that the defendants had made him a needling coat with pockets in the inside for the Workingmen's Association.—At their meeting last night, Mr. Thomas Davis was elected Presidents T. J. Holmes Vice-President, John R. Ricke Corresponding Secretary. This election was for the purpose of filling vacancies.

RELIGIOUS,—Bishop Kavanagh will preach at the Scott-street Methodist Episcopal Church, to-morrow morning. testified that the defendants had made him a peculiar coat with pockets in the inside for the purpose of secreting stolen property, and that they purchased all that he could steal, at one-half its market value. He also testified that he stole a number of pens from George W. Sheppard & Co., valued at $2 25 each, and that they had given him $10 for them, seven in number.

Police Court.—A man named Edwards was fined $5 40 yesterday for committing a breach of the peace, and committed to jail in default of the payment of his fine. NEWPORT NEWS.

CIRCUIT COURT.—To-day will be chiefly occupied in hearing Commonwealth cases, among which will be that of Brooks, against whom two indictments are pending, charging him with attempting to violate the persons of two servant-girls.

and that they had given him $10 for them, seven in number.

Other testimony was elicited, but none that had any direct bearing upon the case. Indeed the defendants rebutted this testimony, explained the transactions they had with Jacobe to the entire satisfaction of the Court, and the consequence was that they were honorably dismissed, and a charge of petty larceny entered against the prosecuting witness, which, if his own evidence may be relied upon, will send him for a long term to the delightful precincts of the County Jail.

This is the second Chinaman that has dr the grand prize. Last year a young fello fifteen years drew a fourth part, or $25 and the Government there has had the m deposited in the bank until he is of age | able to manage his property.

EFFECT OF THE ECLIPSE IN ALGIERS. EFFECT OF THE ECLIPSE IN ALGIERS.—The late eclipse having been nearly total at Algiers, caused great terror among the natives. On the top of their terrors they made a noise with perties and morter, or lighted in their rooms the small wax candles, of which they purchase a supply at the time of the fete of the Moulod (birth-day of Mohammed). They call to mind with alarm that, according to tradition, Argiers is to be one day destroyed under similar circumstances by the sea rising to the hight of Sidi Ben Nour, which crowns one of the summits of the Boussrea; and that future mylgators, when siding past, will point under their vessels

The Recent Stansing Affairs Librarystatut.—Our readers probably remember a stabling affiny that occurred a couple of weeks ago on Liberty-street, between Main and Sycamore, between Lewis Hake and Richard Wissmiller, during which the latter was very siverely injured. The wounded man is now so far recovered as to be able to leave his room, and he appeared yesterday morning at the Police Court. Hake, after an examination, was committed in default of bail in the sum of $750 to await a trial before the next term of the Criminal Court. Piesre at Cusvior.—A grand pienic party will come off on Monday, August 20, at Car-son Graye, one-balf mile north of Cheviot, on the Harrison pike. the following illustration of thoughtful care for the wants of marriageable young men. The peasantry around Josselia retain their old dresses and costoms in perfection; the girls, especially, have a habit that would save much trouble were it introduced into more civilized circles. They appear on fete days in red under petticoats, with white or yellow borders round them; the number of these denotes the portion the father is willing to give his daughter; each white band representing silver, betokens 100 francs of rent; and each yellow band means gold, and stands for 1,000 francs per year. Thus any young farmer who sees a face that pleases him, has only to glance at the trimmings of the petticoat, to learn in an instant what amount of rent accompanies it.

PERUVIAN CRESERATION OF THE FOURTH OF JULY.—The Fourth was celebrated in an appropriate manner at Callao. A recent letter says:

The enthusiasm with which the Fourth was celebrated has acted like a firebrand upon the slumbering patriotism of the Peruvians; the young men have taken up subscriptions and purpose to give a grand hurrah, with a dinner also. Several of the bos ton will give bulls at their residences, and in this manner celebrate, on the 28th, their independence, as they ought to do. In Islay they also had a grand celebration. I believe there is only one American resident, but the Alleghanians and Bell Ringers chanced to be there; so they fixed up a shed with sails, &c., found an American flag, and hoisted it—gave a concert and a ball, at which the first families of the place assisted inside, and the second families kept it up outside, and had all generally a very good time."

Mose Duels in New Galeans.—The young gentlemen, says Wednesday's New Orleans Crescent, who recently had the pistoloric ren counter at the corner of Chartres and Custom-housestreets, (Messrs.
